The recent state fair was a great success financially, the society clearing over $10,000.

The Tribune is trying to get Bro. Stivers, of the Journal, as a candidate for congress, to commit himself on the silver question.

The Daily Short Line, of Duluth, thinks that political matters in Northern Minnesota have fallen into a state of "innocuous demerol." It is gipped by the early frosts.

Fargo has just voted to issue bonds to the sum of $40,000 to finish her system of water works. Across the river at Moorhead they do not have as much use for water with their forty saloons in operation.

A decision has just been filed in the United States circuit court at Fargo, in which it is held that the Northern Pacific railroad lands in North Dakota are as taxable as other property. The matter has been in litigation for many years.

At Pittsburgh a war has been waged against Sunday newspapers and the editors, publishers, composers, and everybody connected with the concern are to be arrested. The people in that city have been suddenly brought to a realization of the enormity of the crime of publishing newspapers on the Sabbath day.

It would seem that the provision of the charter requiring the finance committee of the council to check up the accounts of the city officers every three months has not been complied with in the past. It is to be hoped that it will be done in the future, and thus prevent another such a state of affairs as the present investigation of the city clerk's books discloses.

Kurtz Nelson denies the Washington interview in which he is reported as saying that he would decline the nomination for governor if it was tendered him. Kurtz loves his party too well to make any such statement, or decline being its standard bearer, if he is convinced it is for the interest of the party to do so. Nominate Kurtz Nelson for governor and an old time republican majority is insured.

The commissioners of the World's Fair have at last decided to endeavor to raise the $100,000 by an appeal to the people of Minnesota, in which each county is asked to contribute its proportion of the amount according to its assessed valuation. In the published quota for each county Crow Wing is put down for $370 and Cass at $230. The plan suggested for raising the fund is for responsible citizens of the counties to give their notes upon which the cash can be realized, and suggests that the legislature will be implored to reimburse them at its next session. There is a chance for some good missionary work in this county.

Jerry a Friend of Cuth Davis. J. J. Howe, of Brainerd, of the republican state central committee, is a staunch friend of Senator Davis, and he firmly believes that the junior senator will be returned to the senate next year. Mr. Howe was in the city yesterday and said that he believed Senator Davis would be re-elected without any opposition. He would receive sufficient support in the lower house to assure his election without a doubt, and in case there was not a republican majority he knew of several alliance state senators who, in case they could not elect their man, would rally to the support of Mr. Davis. The same he believed would hold true with reference to a number of his democratic friends. He praised Senator Davis' action in securing for the state the school lands in the Indian reservations recently opened, and he believed that this would add to his popularity.—Pioneer Press.

TO DANCE BEFORE THE QUEEN.

Four Pretty Americans to Entertain Her Majesty With a Minuet. New York, Oct. 5.—Fashionable circles in this city are much exercised as to the identity of four pretty American girls who have arrived in London to dance a minuet before the Queen.

Their chaperon refuses to give their names, but says they are well known in the best New York society. A picture, however, is printed in the October number of The New York and Paris Young Ladies' Fashion Bazaar, entitled "Pretty girls learning to dance the minuet," which gives some clue to their identity.

Society here also is interested in the fact that each of the four Americans is to wear a dress similar to the one illustrated and marked No. 8 in the colored plates of the magazine, which has partly revealed their personality and set fashionable circles agog.

The young ladies have been practicing the minuet for eight months before venturing to ask the privilege, which has been granted, of dancing before Her Majesty.

The New York and Paris Young Ladies' Fashion Bazaar is for sale by all newsdealers. It will also be sent, postage prepared, for 25 cents per single copy. The subscription price is $3.00 per year. Address

He Wants Gore.

We are opposed to the last war, but we are decidedly in favor of the next one, provided it comes in the right place and right soon. We want to see the Russian empire obliterated from the face of the earth and the czar drawn and quartered. That black hell has tortured its millions of innocent men, women and children a fairly too long, and it is ripe time that the civilized nations of the world should unite in its total annihilation.—Iron Port.

To California Without Change.

The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway has inaugurated a tourist Pullman car service from St. Paul and Minneapolis to San Francisco, Lathrop, Los Angeles, and intermediate points, via Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake, Ogden and Sacramento. The car is attached to train leaving St. Paul 9:55, Minneapolis 10:40 a. m., each Thursday. The berths are completely furnished, and the car is provided with a colored porter who gives it the same attention as his services required in a palace sleeper. There is also provided a cooking range which is at the service of all patrons, as well as two commodious lavatories. These excursions are known as the Phillips-Albert Lea Route personally conducted excursions, and are gaining wide popularity. Second-class tickets are accepted for transportation and the charge made for through accommodations is at $4 per double berth, which can be shared by two persons should they desire to occupy the same berth. Reservations should be made several days in advance, and communications addressed to C. M. Pratt, General Ticket and Passenger Agent "Albert Lea Route," Minneapolis, Minn.

Things Worth Remembering.

That it is dangerous to stand near a tall tree or spire during a thunder storm; that the southwest corner of a building is the "eye of the storm," that there is no medicine so universally applicable to sickness as fresh air and sunshine; that blowing out the gas, before retiring, is funny to everybody, except the man who tries it; that you may swear as hard as you please, but it will not remove grease spots; that the Wisconsin Central is the most popular route to the coast; that the points East and South.—Jan. 2, '92.

THE DOG-CATCHER QUAILED.

A Young Woman Rescues Her Poodle at the Muzzle of a Snapping Turtle.

A black French poodle was trotting down Fifth avenue, New York, on a breezy, bright afternoon with a fine straight young woman. The dog seemed proud of his mistress and the girl was proud of her dog. While all was peaceful and the dog seemed to be a well-bred and well-trained animal, a snapping turtle, a rickety and creaking covered wagon, drawn by a pitiable wreck of a horse, and having on its seat two repulsive young men, came around the corner. One of the young ruffians leaped to the ground and made a quick plunge for the dog, catching it by the hind leg and whirling it above his head in a circle, run round the corner and into the rear of the wagon. Quicker than it takes to say so the young woman was in front of the young tough, with one hand clutching his head in a circle, and the other holding the muzzle of a silver-mounted snuffing bottle to his face.

"You drop my dog or I'll shoot you," said the girl. The young fellow peered out of his small eyes into the determined face beside him, and as he attempted to shake the girl's hand from his collar, said: "Aw, wot yer given me, any way? Don't yer see we're der dog catchers, an' you ain't got no right ter have yer purp out without a muzzle? Der dog goes der way der wot!" The girl's face took on a still fiercer and more ominous look. The dog, still in the grasp of the man, was twisting to get away, and yelping with pain.

An Interesting and Instructive Form of Entertainment.

A new amusement, particularly adapted to the traditional talent of fair woman is the "progressive conversation party," which had its birth in the East. Its popularity is established by its possibilities to entertain a number of guests, though more than twenty cannot be easily managed. Its modus operandi is somewhat as follows: As many chairs as are required by the number of guests invited are arranged in pairs in a continuous line, one behind the other, and are yoked together with broad ribbons of different colors. The topics of conversation for the evening are announced on the invitation cards. A card on which is written a topic of conversation is tied with a narrow ribbon to the connecting ribbons on the card of the gentleman on the right, the hostess taps a bell, and the buzz of conversations begins. Ten minutes are allowed to each topic, and the topic on each card is chosen from all the others. The judges chosen pass down the line and criticize, and at the end of the time specified affix a gold star on the card of the best conversationalist, a silver star on the card of the gentleman on the right, the hostess taps a bell, and the buzz of conversations begins. Ten minutes are allowed to each topic, and the topic on each card is chosen from all the others. The judges chosen pass down the line and criticize, and at the end of the time specified affix a gold star on the card of the best conversationalist, a silver star on the card of the gentleman on the right, the hostess taps a bell, and the buzz of conversations begins. Tax Daily Short Line, of Duluth, thinks that political matters in Northern Minnesota have fallen into a state of "innocuous desuetude." It is generally the early candidate that is nipped by the first frost.

Faroo has just voted to issue bonds to the sum of $40,000 to finish her river at Moorhead they do not have as much use for water with their forty saloons in operation.

A decision has just been filed in the United States circuit court at Fargo, in which it is held that the Northern Pacific railroad lands in North Dakota are as taxable as other property. The matter has been in litigation for many years.

At Pittsburgh a war has been waged against Sunday newspapers and the editors, publishers, composers, and everybody connected with the concern are to be arrested. The people in that city have been suddenly brought to a realization of the enormity of the crime of publishing newspapers on the Sabbath day.

It would seem that the provision of the charter requiring the finance committee of the council to check up the accounts of the city officers every three months has not been complied with in the past. It is to be hoped that it will be done in the future, and thus prevent another such state of affairs as the present investigation of the city clerk's books discloses.

KUTTE NELSON denies the Washington interview in which he is reported as saying that he would decline the nomination for governor if it was tendered him. Kutte Nelson has party too to make any such statement, or decline being its standard bearer, if he is convinced it is for the interest of the party to do so. Nominate Kutte Nelson for governor and an old time republican majority is insured.

The commissioners of the World's Fair have at last decided to endeavor to raise the $100,000 by an appeal to the people of Minnesota, in which each county is asked to contribute its proportion of the amount according to its assessed valuation. In the published quota for each county Crow Wing is put down for $370 and Cass at $280. The plan suggested for raising the fund is for responsible citizens of the counties to give their notes upon which the cash can be realized, and suggests that the legislature will be implored to reimburse them at its next session. There is a chance for some good missionary work in this county.

Jerry a Friend of Cuth Davis. J. J. Howe, of Brainerd, of the republican state central committee, is a staunch friend of Senator Davis, and he firmly believes that the junior senator will be returned to the senate next year. Mr. Howe was in the city yesterday and said that he believed Senator Davis would be re-elected without any opposition. He would receive sufficient support in the lower house to assure his election without a doubt, and in case there was not a republican majority he knew of several alliance state senators who, in case they could not elect their man, would rally to the support of Mr. Davis. The same he believed would hold true with reference to a number of his democratic friends. He praised Senator Davis' action in securing for the state the school lands in the Indian reservations recently opened, and he believed that this would add to his popularity.—Pioneer Press.

TO DANCE BEFORE THE QUEEN.

Four Pretty Americans to Entertain Her Majesty With a Minuet.

New York, Oct. 5.—Fashionable circles in this city are much exercised as to the identity of four pretty American girls who have arrived in London to dance a minuet before the Queen.

Their chaperon refuses to give their names, but says they are well known in the best New York society. A picture, however, is printed in the October number of The New York and London Ladies' Fashion Bazaar, entitled "Pretty girls learning to dance the minuet," which gives some clue to their identity.

Society here also is interested in the fact that each of the four Americans is to wear a dress similar to the one illustrated and marked No. 8 in the colored plates of the magazine, which has partly revealed their personality and set fashionable circles agog.

The young ladies have been practicing the minuet for eight months before venturing to ask the privilege, which has been granted, of dancing before Her Majesty.

The New York and Paris Young Ladies' Fashion Bazaar is for sale by all newsdealers. It will also be sent, postage prepared, for 25 cents per single copy. The subscription price is $3.00 per year. Address: GEORGE MUNRO, Munro's Publishing House, P. O. Box 8761, 17 to 27 Vandewater Street, N. Y.

He Wants Gore.

We are opposed to the last war, but we are decidedly in favor of the next one, provided it comes in the right place and right soon. We want to see the Russian empire obliterated from the face of the earth and the czar drawn and quartered. That black hell has tortured its millions of innocent men, women and children so long and it is ripe time that the civilized nations of the world should unite in its total annihilation.—Iron Port.

The berths are completely furnished, and the car is provided with a colored porter who gives it the same attention as his services required in a palace sleeper. These excursions are known as the Phillips-Albert Lea Route personally conducted excursions, and are gaining wide popularity. Second-class tickets are accepted for transportation and the charge made for through accommodations is but $4 per double berth, which can be shared by two persons should they desire to occupy the same berth. Reservations should be made several days in advance, and communications addressed to C. M. Pratt, General Ticket and Passenger Agent, "Albert Lea Route," Minneapolis, Minn.

Things Worth Remembering.

That it is dangerous to stand near a tall tree or spire during a thunder storm; that the southwest corner of the cellar is the "cyclone safety-point," that there is no medicine so universal as water, and that a fresh air and sunshine; that blowing out the gas, before retiring, is funny;—to everybody, except the man who tries it; that you may starve as hard as you please, but it will not reprieve grease spots; that the Wisconsin Central is the most popular route to Milwaukee, Chicago, and points East and South.—Jan. 2, '92.

THE DOG-CATCHER QUAILED.

A Young Woman Rescues Her Poodle as the Muzzle of a Smelling Bottle. A black French poodle was trotting down Fifth avenue, New York, on a breezy, bright afternoon with a fine coat of white foam, when a young woman, who seemed proud of her mistress and the girl was proud of her dog. While all was peaceful and danger seemed nowhere, a rider on a creeping horse, drawn by a pitiable street of a horse, and having on its seat two repulsive young men came around the corner. One of the young ruffians leaped to the ground and made a quick plunge for the dog, catching it by the hind leg and whirling it above his head in a circle, running as he did so to the corner of the street. Quicker than it takes to say so the young woman was in front of the young tough, with one hand clutching his coat collar and the other holding the muzzle of the dog.

"You drop my dog or I'll shoot you," said the girl. The young fellow peered out of his small eyes into the determined face beside him, and as he attempted to shake the girl's hand from his collar, said: "Aw, wot yer given me, any way? Don't yer see we're dog catchers, an' you ain't got no right ter have yer purp out without a muzzle? Der dog goes along wid us, see?"

The girl's face took on a still fiercer and more ominous look. The dog, still in the grasp of the man, was twisting to get away, and yelping with pain. "If you do not drop my dog this instant," said the girl, "I will fire. Do you hear me?"

The catcher dropped the dog. By this time people were coming up to see the disturbance. The young woman put the bogus weapon into the small chateaubain bag that she wore, and a man, who seemed to be accompanied by her joyous dog, pursued her morning walk serenely and with stately grace.

An Interesting and Instructive Form of Entertainment. A new amusement particularly adapted to the traditional talent of fair woman is the "progressive conversation party," which had its birth in the East. Its popularity is established by its possibilities to entertain any number of guests, though more than twenty cannot be easily managed. Its modus operandi is somewhat as follows: As many chairs as are required by the number of guests invited are arranged in pairs in a continuous line, one behind the other, and are yoked together with broad ribbons of different colors. The topics of conversation for the evening are announced on the invitation cards. A card on which is written a topic of conversation is tied with a narrow ribbon to the connecting ribbons on the chairs, and the game when played with cards. When all the guests have drawn a card they take their seats according to the color designated by the tally card, the ladies on the left and the gentlemen on the right, the hostess taps a bell, and the buzz of conversation begins. Ten minutes are allowed for each topic and the topic on each set of chairs differs from all the others. The judges chosen pass down the line and criticize, and at the end of the time specified a gold star is placed on the card of the best conversationalist, a silver star on the card of the vanquished. The entire company change seats, the gentlemen retreating one seat, the ladies advancing one, and the buzz begins again. When ten changes have been made, ten topics dished up and discussed, the person having the greatest number of gold stars is the winner.

SORE THROAT

Bronchitis, colds, coughs, asthma, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Singers, actors, auctioneers, public speakers, clergymen, teachers, lecturers, and all who are liable to disorder of the vocal organs, find a sure remedy in this wonderful and well-known preparation. As an emergency medicine, in cases of croup, whooping cough, etc., it should be in every household.

And Bronchitis

It seemed as if it could not survive, all the usual remedies proving of no avail. At last I thought of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking two bottles of this medicine I was restored to health.—Chas. Gambel, South's Ranch, Sonoma Co., Cal.

WASHINGTON.
The appointment of Prof. O. V. Tinsley of Minnesota as civil service commissioner is considered certain.

ONE great labor has been removed from the public mind by Mr. Porter's census. It informs us there are over 4,000,000 red-headed girls in the United States. Of course nobody cared a rap how many there were, and so the figures will stand undisputed.

COMMISSIONER CARTER approved a contract with Dike Sander for the survey of the coast of Alaska. The cost of the survey is $100,000. The survey is to be completed in 1890.

A GREAT many people are of the opinion that battles are generally followed by rain. It may surprise them therefore to be told that a distinguished writer in science proves that out of the 2,200 battles of the rebellion only 158 were followed by rain at all, and that often was but little more than a shower.

THE Pennington airship has had a successful trial trip at last, if the report from St. Louis is correct. It was caught up by a storm and blown away, thus proving it could sail through the air after a fashion and pleasantly disappointing a good many skeptics who have noted the continual promises of the airship company.

A HINDOO princess, the Begum Almudee, has distinguished herself in London society as a singer of superior voice, talent, and cultivation. She is a descendant of the emperors of Delhi, and possesses a mezzo soprano voice of extraordinary richness and power, which is used with very high artistic taste. She has also great personal beauty.

THE wealth of New South Wales, public and private, is officially estimated at $330,000,000, which is an average of $217, or $2.88 per head of population. Since 1881, there has been an increase of about 100 per cent. in the total wealth, and 45 per cent. in the distribution per inhabitant, a ratio of increase which statisticians declare to be without precedent in any part of the world.

NEAR Hisne, about forty miles west of St. Thomas, Canada, was discovered the largest skeleton of any extinct animal yet found. It belonged to the order of mastodon giganticus and measured 22 feet from end of the nostril to tip of tail. The tooth only of one of these huge monsters of prehistoric times was dug up recently at Falling Springs, near Belleville, Miss., which weighed fourteen pounds twelve ounces, and had the skeleton been found to be that of an animal 30 feet long.

The dispatches state that C. H. Truesdell, well known in this city, has fled from St. Cloud with all the funds of the show company he was connected with.

A. J. Christie has returned from Sprague, Wash., and will hereafter reside here. He has accepted the position of foreman of the lumber yard at the shops.

Rev. I. Bergstrom, formerly a resident here, is paying Brainerd a visit, and will preach Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church, and in the evening at the Swedish Baptist church.

A. H. Closterman has rented the building formerly occupied by Buckley and Coulter's hotel, and will run it as an adjunct of the National.—Presto Change.

Don't fail to hear the Mlle. Augusta Ohrstrom company in their select repertoire of popular and classic music at the opera house on Friday evening, Oct. 23rd.

The Minneapolis Lumberman says that J. J. Howe & Co. have finally got their mud river drive down as far as Grand Rapids. Six months hard labor has been expended in this labor.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. Committee on unfinished business are expected to be present and report on same. All are cordially invited.

Mr. John Everett, of Brainerd, Minn., is in the city, and has ordered a monument for his wife, who is buried in the St. Thomas cemetery, at F. Doggett's marble works.—St. Thomas (Canada) Daily Times.

Among the new enterprises recently started in Grand Rapids is the merchant tailoring establishment of Frank Leompke. Mr. Leompke is from Brainerd, where he carried on an extensive business.—Grand Rapids Magnet.

W. G. Percy, of Brainerd, has accepted a position with Lamonte Durbrow. Mr. Percy has had four years experience as a prescription clerk and will have full charge of Mr. Durbrow's stock of drugs.—Foster Co. (N. Dak.) Independent.

H. Guilfoill has purchased the old Stewart & Barlow office, near the livery barn, and is having it moved to First avenue, opposite the City Bakery. He will remodel it somewhat and move into it with his tailor shop.—Presto Change.

From a private source we learn that Charlie Taylor, formerly of this city will be married on Thursday, October 22nd, at Ft. Madison, Iowa, to a young lady of that city, whose name we have been unable to learn. The many warm friends of Charlie in this city will wish them unalloyed happiness in their new relation. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, we understand, will reside in Chicago the coming winter with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taylor.

The state Baptist convention has been in session at St. Cloud during the week, and a very exhaustive account of the proceedings have been published in the daily papers of the state. In the Minneapolis Tribune, however, appears a communication which says there are eighteen counties in the state with no Baptist churches of any description to be found, and among the number is found Crow Wing county. This is a mistake, as there are two churches of that denomination in Brainerd.

Don't miss the Special Cloak Display on Saturday all day at HENRY I. COHEN'S.

The winter schedule of the Northern Pacific road is announced to take place Nov. 1st, and by it the through trains, Nos. 3 and 4, will be taken off. This will give Brainerd a more wretched mail service than at present.

Sunk Centre Avalanche: Mark D. Root, who has been in the Northern Pacific depot at this place since last fall, left on Monday for Mankato, to enter the telegraph office there. He made many friends during his sojourn here, and will keep track of them by having The Avalanche make him weekly visits. Success to you, Mark.

In conversation with a member of the finance committee of the council, we learn that the committee will not be able to make a report at the meeting of the council next Monday night, because of the labor required in checking up the books of ex-Clerk Murphy for the past two years, or since he assumed the duties of the office. We are informed, however, that the total shortage would be at least $1,000, and may exceed that amount considerably.

Captain Anderson, of the Salvation Army, has issued a circular reviewing the work done by that organization in this city since its establishment here, and closes with an appeal for funds to liquidate their indebtedness for running expenses, which he places at $140. According to the report the Army has made over 80 converts, all of whom, the Captain alleges, except 5, have been true to the promises made. The Army has made improvements in their hall and officers quarters to the extent of $280, which is paid except $90, which, with $50 unpaid running expenses, makes the sum total of their indebtedness. The report says the Army is not temporary, but a permanent institution for good, and therefore deserves the aid of all of our citizens.

Farewell to Rev. Treglawney. Rev. C. H. Treglawney, who has been the pastor of the Methodist Church in this city for the past two years, left on Thursday morning for Alexandria, his new field of labor, at which place he will be joined shortly by his wife and family. On Wednesday evening a farewell reception was tendered them at the Church by a large circle of friends. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to them by the Relief Corps and Pap. Thomas Post, of an elegant silver tea set, gold lined. Editor Stivers making the presentation speech, which was feelingly responded to by Mr. Treglawney. Refreshments were served after which the company dispersed. The returned gentlemen and his estimable wife and family leave Brainerd for their new home with the best wishes of a host of friends.

A Pleasant Occasion. Editor and Mrs. Halsted entertained their numerous friends on Monday evening, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of their wedding. Many elegant presents were received, among which was a very fine sideboard. Progressive euchre was the principal feature, and prizes were taken as follows: Head lady's prize, an etching, Miss Amy Lowmy. Head gent's prize, silver card case, Maynard Crane. Lady's foot prize, potato washer, Mrs. Crane. Gent's foot prize, drum and sticks, J. N. Nevers. Supper was served later in the evening, which was a very elaborate affair.

Look at our big ad. on this page. It will explain the Cloak Sale of the 17th, this Saturday.

Grand Ball. All lovers of the torseorean art, will be pleased to learn that Canton Adair, Patriarch Militant, I. O. O. F., are making elaborate preparations for a grand ball at Gardner's hall, on Thursday evening, Oct. 22nd. Committees have been appointed to perfect arrangements, which is being done on a scale that insures success, socially as well as financially. This will also be the formal opening of Gardner's magnificent new hall. A fine hard wood floor is now being laid, and will be finished and in good shape before the evening of the dance. Invitations for this, their second annual ball, are now being issued. No one fortunate enough to receive an invitation can afford to stay away, as it will undoubtedly be the social event of the season.

The Beneficial Association. The ninth annual report of the Northern Pacific Beneficial Association just issued, shows the society to be most prosperous, says the Minneapolis Journal. The receipts were $105,201.01, and increase of nearly $17,000, while the disbursements were $89,149.72. There were 620 benefit allowances paid, aggregating $10,972.20. The Brainerd Sanitarium was maintained at an expense of $21,337.53, and the Missoula institution cost $19,133.76, the office expenses being $3,510.18. During the year 367 patients were treated at Brainerd, and 364 at Missoula. On the entire system 2,639 patients were treated, the line surgeons treating 12,000 additional.

A High Class Musical Entertainment. On Friday evening, Oct. 23d, the Augusta Ohrstrom Concert Co. will appear at the opera house, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational church. It is one of the best concert companies on the road, and deserves the most liberal patronage. The Minneapolis Tribune, of a recent date, contains the following concerning the company:

The Augusta Ohrstrom concert occurs Monday night at Century Hall. Since Miss Ohrstrom sang to a crowded house at the Lyceum Theatre in this city, she has traveled in Europe and received the most flattering notices from the press. The best Stockholm papers speak of her in tones of unstinted praise, and her reading of Grieg's romance, "The Princess," is considered very fine. The company, which accompanied her on this, her second American tour, appears to contain much good material.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Destroyed by Wet Weather.

The farmers in the Red River Valley who failed to stack their grain are in a sorry plight and the fact can no longer be concealed that that portion of the harvest will be practically ruined in many fields. The wet season has blighted the promise of the most bountiful harvest in the history of the country. The writer has been in Norman county during the past week, and while in that section the injury will not be as great as in adjoining counties, it is bad enough. Thousands of acres of wheat stand in the shock upon the prairies, and for several weeks the farmers have been forced to see their promising harvest spoiling and were utterly helpless. The drenching rain descended as soon as the threshing time opened and has been almost continuous, so much so that but from ten to fifteen days threshing has been done. The farmers are almost frantic as their crop, if the weather would permit threshing from this on, would at best be an off grade. In the northern part of the state the wheat stacks and shocks are standing in from six inches to a foot of water in many places, and the ground is so wet that it is almost impossible to move the machines and engines from one field to another. To cap the climax men who have been in that country for a month waiting for work are beginning to leave, as their few dollars have been used up and they are compelled to go, which will leave the crews short.

A Vocal Artist of the Very First Rank.

Miss Ohrstrom is a vocal artist of the very first rank, and a singer who commands the attention of the most critical in whatever she is heard. Such artists are heard all too seldom on the concert stage, and when heard are quickly appreciated. Such was most certainly the result last evening, for Miss Ohrstrom's success was instantaneous and most pronounced, and her audience gave her a most enthusiastic recognition of her grand abilities. She is first a musician and then a singer, and in her vocal work she displays with faultless taste and consummate skill the result of these combined qualifications for the concert stage. Her voice has the brilliancy of the mezzo soprano, with the richness of the mezzo soprano, and it has been most thoroughly and artistically trained; exhibiting the true method in the use, and giving genuine satisfaction in every way. She sang with great taste the old, but always enjoyable, "Sicilian Vespers," aria by Verdi, and an encore number, "Jamie Dear," was given with equal success. The Spanish bolero, "La Veritable Manola," was sung with splendid dash and spirit, and gained the singer another enthusiastic recall, to which she responded by singing a bright Norwegian folk-song by her own accompaniment.—Boston Herald.

The delight of the audience could not have been greater, particularly after the beautiful romance, "The Princess," by Grieg, exquisitely sung by Miss Augusta Ohrstrom, whose voice was equal to the world's best interpreters of this song. Nina Greig and Christina Nilsson.—Daily Chronicle, (Dagens Kronika) Stockholm, Jan. 1891.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, we understand, will reside in Chicago the coming winter with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taylor.

The state Baptist convention has been in session at St. Cloud during the week, and a very exhaustive account of the proceedings have been published in the daily papers of the state. In the Minneapolis Tribune, however, appears a communication which says there are eighteen counties in the state with no Baptist churches of any description to be found, and among the number is found Crow Wing county. This is a mistake, as there are two churches of that denomination in Brainerd.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1890.

Mark D. Root, who has been in the Northern Pacific depot at this place since last fall, left on Monday for Mankota, to enter the telegraph office there. He made many friends during his sojourn here, and will keep track of them by having The Avalanche make him weekly visits. Success to you, Mark.

In conversation with a member of the finance committee of the council, we learn that the committee will not be able to make a report at the meeting of the council next Monday night, because of the labor required in checking up the books of ex-Clerk Murphy for the past two years, or since he assumed the duties of the office. We are informed, however, that the total shortage would be at least $1,000, and may exceed that amount considerably.

Captain Anderson, of the Salvation Army, has issued a circular reviewing the work done by that organization in this city since its establishment here, and closes with an appeal for funds to liquidate their indebtedness for running expenses, which he places at $140. According to the report the Army has made over 80 converts, all of whom, the Captain alleges, except 5, have been true to the promises made. The Army has made improvements in their hall and officers quarters to the extent of $280, which is paid except $90, which with $50 unpaid running expenses, makes the sum total of their indebtedness. The report says the Army is not temporary, but a permanent institution for good, and therefore deserves the aid of all of our citizens.

Farewell to Rev. Treglawney.

Rev. C. H. Treglawney, who has been the pastor of the Methodist Church in this city for the past two years, left on Thursday morning for Alexandria, his new field of labor, at which place he will be joined shortly by his wife and family. On Wednesday evening a farewell reception was tendered them at the Church by a large circle of friends. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to them by the Relief Corps and Pap. Thomas Post, of an elegant silver tea set, gold lined. Editor Stivers making the presentation speech, which was feelingly responded to by Mr. Treglawney. Refreshments were served after which the company dispersed. The reverend gentlemen and his estimable wife and family leave Brainerd for their new home with the best wishes of a host of friends.

A Pleasant Occasion.

Editor and Mrs. Halsted entertained their numerous friends on Monday evening, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of their wedding. Many elegant presents were received, among which was a very fine side-board. Progressive euchre was the principal feature, and prizes were taken as follows: Head lady's prize, an etching, Miss Amy Lowry. Head gent's prize, silver card case, Maynard Crane. Lady's foot prize, potato masher, Mrs. Crane. Gent's foot prize, drum and sticks, J. N. Nevers. Supper was served later in the evening, which was a very elaborate affair.

This will also be the formal opening of Gardner's magnificent new hall. A fine hard wood floor is now being laid, and will be finished and in good shape before the evening of the dance. Invitations for this, their second annual ball, are now being issued. FRANCE'S DECADENCE.

A Steady Decline in the Population of the Republic.

The population of France has been steadily decreasing, or, at least, its rate of increase has been steadily diminishing, and the dwindling process has gone on continuously over a longer period than is supposed. The loss is double for it is both relative and actual. In the ten years from 1870 to 1880, in a population of 1,000 the number of children born was 38. In the following decade it was 32, and then it sank to 30, 28, 27, 26, till in the decade of 1880 to 1890 it was only 24. Of course there were special causes of this decline—the Franco-Prussian war and the poverty which followed the injury to the national credit. But still for a century the descent has been constant. The details of the annual increase of population are in many ways surprising. England, which might be expected to head the list is second. The German population increases at the rate of 14 to the 1,000; the English 12; next but at a long interval is Australia, and then follows Italy. Hungary and Sweden are the same, and last on the list is France.

Eating Machines.

The Russians eat, on an average, once every two hours. The climate and custom require such frequent meals, the digestion of which is aided by frequent draughts of vodka and tea. Vodka is the Russian whisky and made from potatoes and rye. It is fiery and choleric, and is mixed with some extract like vanilla or orange. It is drunk from small cups that hold, perhaps half a pint. Vodka and tea are the inseparable accompaniments of friendly, as well as of business, intercourse in the country of the Czar. Drunken men are rare. Russia and Sweden are the only countries in which the double dinners is the rule. When you go to the house of a Russian, be he a friend or stranger, you are at once invited to a side table, where salted meat, pickled ome, salted cucumbers, and many other spicy and appetizing viands are urged upon you with an importuneness that knows no refusal. This repast is washed down with frequent cups of vodka. That over, and when the visitor feels as if he had eaten enough for twenty-four hours the host says, "And now for dinner."

An Ingenious Screen.

A Charleston woman has in her possession a unique screen that can scarcely be matched for oddity and interest. It is a long narrow screen under six feet high, with three panels of medium breadth. The inside is neatly covered with a dark crimson silk, a heavy gray paper supplying the outer surface. It is on the paper that she has with taste and elaboration worked out her quaint conceit. Having preserved since their earliest organization the brilliantly decorated invitations of the mystic carnival orders of New Orleans, with those of the Baltimore Orioles and Velled Prophets of St. Louis, she has after infinite pains, succeeded in pasting one so that they will unite to make a series of interesting pictures. The mystical or historical subjects presented by these mystic Krewe's of Comus, Momus, and the rest, year after year, can be traced in the gray, scarlet, blue, and gold tableaux on this screen. Not a representation is missing, and it is very probable that this is the only absolutely complete collection in the country.

From a private source we learn that Charlie Taylor, formerly of this city will be married on Thursday, October 22nd, at Ft. Madison, Iowa, to a young lady of that city, whose name we have been unable to learn. The many warm friends of Charlie in this city will wish them unalloyed happiness in their new relation. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, we understand, will reside in Chicago the coming winter with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taylor.

The state Baptist convention has been in session at St. Cloud during the week, and a very exhaustive account of the proceedings have been published in the daily papers of the state. In the Minneapolis Tribune, however, appears a communication which says there are eighteen counties in the state with no Baptist churches of any description to be found, and among the number is found Crow Wing county. This is a mistake, as there are two churches of that denomination in Brainerd.

The winter schedule of the Northern Pacific road is announced to take place Nov. 1st, and by it the through trains, Nos. 3 and 4, will be taken off. This will give Brainerd a more wretched mail service than at present.

Sank Centre Avalancher: Mark D. Root, who has been in the Northern Pacific depot at this place since last fall, left on Monday for Mankota, to enter the telegraph office there. He made many friends during his sojourn here, and will keep track of them by having The Avalanche make him weekly visits. Success to you, Mark.

In conversation with a member of the finance committee of the council, we learn that the committee will not be able to make a report at the meeting of the council next Monday night, because of the labor required in checking up the books of ex-Clerk Murphy for the past two years, or since he assumed the duties of the office. We are informed, however, that the total shortage would be at least $1,000, and may exceed that amount considerably.

Captain Anderson, of the Salvation Army, has issued a circular reviewing the work done by that organization in this city since its establishment here, and closes with an appeal for funds to liquidate their indebtedness for running expenses, which he places at $140. According to the report the Army has made over 80 converts, all of whom, the Captain alleges, except 5, have been true to the promises made. The Army has made improvements in their hall and officers quarters to the extent of $280, which is paid except $90, which, with $50 unpaid running expenses, makes the sum total of their indebtedness. The report says the Army is not temporary, but a permanent institution for good, and therefore deserves the aid of all of our citizens.

Farewell to Rev. Treglawney. Rev. C. H. Treglawney, who has been the pastor of the Methodist Church in this city for the past two years, left on Thursday morning for Alexandria, his new field of labor, at which place he will be joined shortly by his wife and family. On Wednesday evening a farewell reception was tendered them at the Church by a large circle of friends. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to them by the Relief Corps and Pap. Thomas Post, of an elegant silver tea set, gold lined, Editor Stivers making the presentation speech, which was feelingly responded to by Mr. Treglawney. Refreshments were served after which the company dispersed. The reverend gentlemen and his estimable wife and family leave Brainerd for their new home with the best wishes of a host of friends.

A Pleasant Occasion. Editor and Mrs. Halsted entertained their numerous friends on Monday evening, the occasion being the fifth anniversary of their wedding. Many elegant presents were received, among which was a very fine sideboard. Progressive euchre was the principal feature, and prizes were taken as follows: Head lady's prize, an etching, Miss Amy Lowey. Head gent's prize, silver card case, Maynard Crane. Lady's foot prize, potato masher, Mrs. Crane. Gent's foot prize, drum and sticks, J. N. Nevers. Supper was served later in the evening, which was a very elaborate affair.

Grand Ball. All lovers of the terpsichorean art, will be pleased to learn that Canton Adair, Patriarche Militant, I. O. O. F., are making elaborate preparations for a grand ball at Gardner's hall, on Thursday evening, Oct. 22nd. Committees have been appointed to perfect arrangements, which is being done on a scale that insures success, socially as well as financially. This will also be the formal opening of Gardner's magnificent new hall. A fine hard wood floor is now being laid, and will be finished and in good shape before the evening of the dance. Invitations for this, their second annual ball, are now being issued. No one fortunate enough to receive an invitation can afford to stay away, as it will undoubtedly be the social event of the season.

The Beneficial Association. The ninth annual report of the Northern Pacific Beneficial Association just issued, shows the society to be most prosperous, says the Minneapolis Journal. The receipts were $105,201.01, and increase of nearly $17,000, while the disbursements were $89,149.72. There were 620 benefit allowances paid, aggregating $10,972.20. The Brainerd Sanitarium was maintained at an expense of $21,337.53, and the Missoula institution cost $19,133.76, the office expenses being $3,510.18. During the year 367 patients were treated at Brainerd, and 364 at Missoula. On the entire system 2,639 patients were treated, the line surgeons treating 12,000 additional.

A High Class Musical Entertainment. On Friday evening, Oct. 23d, the Augusta Ohrstrom Concert Co. will appear at the opera house, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational church. It is one of the best concert companies on the road, and deserves the most liberal patronage. The Minneapolis Tribune, of a recent date, contains the following concerning the company: The Augusta Ohrstrom concert occurs Monday night at Century Hall. Since Miss Ohrstrom sang to a crowded house at the Lyceum Theatre in this city, she has traveled in Europe and received the most flattering notices from the press. The best Stockholm papers speak of her in tones of unqualified praise, and her rendition of Grieg's romance, "The Princess," is considered very fine. The company which accompanies her on this, her second American tour, appears to contain much good material.

All the Ladies are invited to step in at our store on Saturday, the 17th, for the Special Cloak Sale.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Destroyed by Wet Weather. The farmers in the Red River Valley who failed to stack their grain are in a sorry plight and the fact can no longer be concealed that that portion of the harvest will be practically ruined in many fields. The wet season has blighted the promise of the most bountiful harvest in the history of the country. The writer has been in Norman county during the past week, and while in that section the injury will not be as great as in adjoining counties, it is bad enough. Thousands of acres of wheat stand in the shock upon the prairies, and for several weeks the farmers have been forced to see their promising harvest spoiling and were utterly helpless. The drenching rain descended as soon as the threshing time opened and has been almost continuous since, so much so that but from ten to fifteen days threshing has been done. The farmers are almost frantic as their crop, if the weather would permit threshing from this on, would at best be an off grade. In the northern part of the state the wheat stacks and shocks are standing in from six inches to a foot of water in many places, and the ground is so wet that it is almost impossible to move the machines and engines from one field to another. To cap the climax men who have been in that country for a month waiting for work are beginning to leave, as their few dollars have been used up and they are compelled to go, which will leave the crews short.

A Vocal Artist of the Very First Rank.

Miss Ohrstrom is a vocal artist of the very first rank, and a singer who commands the attention of the most critical in whatever she is heard. Such artists are heard all too seldom on the concert stage, and when heard are quickly appreciated. Such was most certainly the result last evening, for Miss Ohrstrom's success was instantaneous and most pronounced, and her audience gave her a most enthusiastic recognition of her grand abilities. She is first a musician and then a singer, and in her vocal work she displays with fearless taste and consummate skill the result of these combined qualifications for the concert stage. Her voice has the brilliancy of the true soprano, with the richness of the mezzo soprano, and it has been most thoroughly and artistically trained; exhibiting the true method in the use, and giving genuine satisfaction in every way. She sang with great taste the old, but always enjoyable, "Sicilian Vespers," aria by Verdi, and an encore number, "Jamie Dear," was given with equal success. The Spanish bolero, "La Veritable Manola," was sung with splendid dash and spirit, and gained the singer another enthusiastic recall, to which she responded by singing a most Norwegian folk-song to her own accompaniment.—Boston Herald.

The delight of the audience could not have been greater, particularly after the beautiful romance, "The Princess," by Greig, exquisitely sung by Miss Augusta Ohrstrom, whose rendition was equal to the world's best interpreters of the song. Nina Greig and Christina Nilsson.—Daily Chronicle, (Dagens Kronika.) Stockholm, Jan. 1891.

At the opera house Friday evening, Oct. 23rd. Prices of admission, 25, and 50 cents.
